LDI INTEGRATED PHARMACY HIRES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING
Taylor Brings More Than 20 Years of Sales Experience

ST. LOUIS (June 3, 2008) – St. Louis-based LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services has named Michael Taylor vice president of sales and marketing. Founded by pharmacists in 1967, LDI manages prescription benefit programs for self-insured organizations and provides pharmacy cost management services.

Taylor, who is based out of the company's Tulsa office, brings more than 20 years of sales experience to LDI. He is responsible for new business development and managing the company's sales force. Prior to joining LDI, Taylor was regional sales director at Central Benefits and regional vice president at National Medical Health Card Systems. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Oral Roberts University.

"I am excited to join a company with such a long history of innovation," said Taylor. "I look forward to sharing information on the new pharmacy cost management services LDI has available, especially in the area of specialty pharmacy."

"We are proud to welcome such an experienced team member to the LDI family," said Leonard S. Dino, Jr., Pharm. D., CEO of LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services. "Michael will be an integral part of informing new and existing clients of the latest innovations LDI has to offer."

About LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services

Founded in 1967 by pharmacists, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services provides a comprehensive portfolio of pharmacy benefits services for health insurance agents, brokers and consultants; third party administrators; and self-insured organizations. These services include specialty pharmacy cost management, mail-order pharmacy, generic drug education, step therapy and formulary design.

In addition, through its online RxPortal and Health Envelope programs, LDI provides easy-to-access plan information, education and wellness programs to increase the health and well-being of prescription plan members. For more information, please visit www.ldirx.com.
